

Date Week Four

Husbands ask these questions of your wife

#1: On a scale from one to ten, with zero being terrible and ten being a great marriage, where would you like our relationship to be?

#2: On a scale from one to ten overall, where would you rate our marriage today?

#3: As you look at our relationship, what are some specific things we could do over the next six weeks that would move us closer to a ten?

#4: If our marriage were to go on just the way it's been going, what will it be like for us in five, ten, or twenty years?

#5: What does God want us to pray about as a couple?
